

Then proposed rule changes will destroy competition in the media and eliminate what is left of free and independent news sources. How could you possibly conclude that we need more consolidation and larger conglomerates in the media business? Start working for the American people instead of the corporations.